

Leathes Prior have a dedicated team of lawyers specialising in commercial law services to businesses in the healthcare sector such as health recruitment companies, nursing and care homes, GP practices and businesses providing a wide range of goods and services to those in the healthcare market.

Our client base ranges from multi million pound companies providing services to such clients as Spire Healthcare, Nuffield Healthcare and BMI Healthcare to sole proprietors and partnerships in medical practices and care homes.

Having worked in this sector for many years we understand the issues facing our clients in the healthcare sector and their business needs.
